WEED SHOT FOR WORKS.

From present examination the most perfect test of the existence of worms, and in a few hours clears the system of them completely. In urgent cases of fits, convulsions, or spasms, caused by worms, its superiority over every other remedy is manifest and unequalled. Few medicines are better calculated to improve the health of children, for though prompt in action, it is perfectly safe and adapted to the sensitive age.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For the rapid cure of Cough, Colds, Headaches and Inflammation without leaving the Lungs, and thus removing the last remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary Disease. So widely is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cure, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known who have restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over all other remedies is manifest and unequalled.
No family should be without it, and those who are engaged in business should keep it, and those who are engaged in the practice of a remedy which wears off this dangerous class of disease, will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people—they have living proofs every neighborhood. But those who have not the opportunity of seeing the effects of this medicine and who have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the agents above named have to furnish gratis for every one.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.,
EAST SIDE THIRD STREET, BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON.

TUESDAY..... MARCH 3, 1847.

For the better information of the brethren, we republish the following article from the Western Citizen, one of the principal organs in the State, and one of the oldest newspapers in Kentucky:

NOMINATIONS.—A representative in Congress from this county, and a representative in the State Legislature from this county, are to be chosen next August, we have thought proper to publish the substance of the nomination of the delegates to these offices, in the constitution of the American Order in Kentucky. The nomination is to be made by the delegates to the Grand Council of Kentucky, from the districts in which they are chosen. The districts to which the Presidents of the Grand Council may appoint, at least sixty days before the period of the election.

Nominations for the office of representative in the State Legislature are to be made by the delegates representing the districts in which they are chosen, and places as the county President may appoint, at least forty days before the election. If the state estimate Councils prefer it, they may do so.

In their Councils, for candidates, at such time as they may determine.

Upon the day after the voting, the votes shall be counted by the said delegates, and the result announced to the President of subordinate councils. If the delegates shall return the highest candidates to the Presidents of the Councils, which shall select the candidates, the same shall be chosen by the said Presidents, and to be listed by the delegates.

Another procedure is, to submit the nomination to that member of the committee in a meeting held for the purpose of making nominations, shall be eligible to any nomination to be made by such meeting.

It is surprising that freemen should tolerate such an organization as this. The delegates to the Grand Council are a sort of aristocracy that have the business of distributing offices in their own hands. Delegates are not sent by the voters to a Convention to select a candidate, when all their powers and duties cease; but a Constitution is made establishing a government of a party, after the model of a civil government.

The delegates to the State Convention are to meet in a Congressional District, on a day appointed by the President of the State Council.

These delegates are to fix up the business for the people, and independently of them. In the case of Legislators, the Councils may vote, but if no one has a majority, then the Presidents of the Councils are to settle the question. All this is written partly, to which the faithful are to yield implicit obedience.

If the time has come when such expedients are needed in this country, it is an ill omen. Such arrangements are a perversion of party action. There may be some despotism in a party, but it is a vice that ought to be avoided.

Heretofore party connections have not been formed by oaths, signs, and grips, nor by a sort of government organization. Can't our people be left to their own voluntary associations, to con- sult their own judgment and sense of right, without these trammels of stringent organization, without oaths, and promises, and signs, and grips? The very organization implies that the people are not to be trusted; that they must be managed by the skill and craft of the leaders; and the machinery must be devised for the purpose.

The power of public opinion has forced apologies and excuses for secession; and the excuses imply a distrust of popular virtue and intelligence. The very organization is a reproach to the men of their own party. They are required to swear and promise, to be divided into degrees with superiors, all of which imply that they are not to be trusted otherwise.

Now, these nominations are removed as far from the unbiased popular choice as possible. The convention system has been strongly ob- jected to because it often thwarts the purpose of the people. The evils complained of sometimes happen; but the object of all good men is to avoid them, and to so manage as to collect the immediate wishes and judgment of the masses. Here is a contrivance just to produce and aggravate all the evils of nominations. Let the brethren all read and see if they do not by this organization barter away their own freedom.

The editor of the organ is greatly ex- cused about the right of suffrage, and the frauds upon it; and he wants a registry law to prevent them. We should like to be informed as to the whereabouts of the fifteen hundred voters of the First Ward of this city, and how that Ward come under Know-Nothing rule; and further, if the registry law he proposes provides for clubs and brass-knuckles, and committees of vigilance to use these valuable utensils. The voters of Louisville want the legal rights they have suffered of late. They want to be assured that the legal voters shall not be kept from exercising a right guaranteed by the Constitution and the laws. It is quite as important that the legal voter should have an opportunity to vote, as that the illegal voter should not exercise that right. Our laws here do not secure this important right. The law is good, but it is trampled under foot, and the higher law of party substituted for it. A registry law is no remedy for any evil. The frauds are greatest where such a law exists.

The chairman appointed the following named gentlemen as the said committee:

J. S. Lithgow,
H. D. Newcomb,
Geo. A. Caldwell,
Dr. U. E. Ewing,
Thos. M. Hicks,

Local Affairs.

Charitably disposed people in New York city have been laboring for years to ameliorate the sufferings and improve the condition of the denizens of the notorious district of that city known as the "Five Points," and indeed they deserve credit for what they have accomplished. It is remembered that we had a locality in our own metropolis long known as the "Five Points," which formerly rejoiced in the more pleasant knowledge of cattle, Mr. Kay certainly possessed, and the Missourians can confide in him strictly.

ATTEMPT TO PASS COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—A young man, Leopold Hemstetter, was before the Police Court yesterday for attempting to pass a counterfeit $5 bill upon Mr. Brown, at the corner of Fourth and Market streets, and also upon Mr. Brownfield, in the same neighborhood. The young fellow proved that he had received the money from his employer, Louis Dempf, a shoemaker, who had represented it as good. It appeared in proof that the young man had attempted to purchase two pounds of sugar, which the Court seemed to think was too many groceries for a single man to buy at one time. But the youth pled partial drunkenness, and the Court let him off.

SATURDAY DAY ENVOYS.—Dr. Taylor and Maj. Satilto, having spent the major part of the winter in the Alms-house, took advantage of the first day of spring to air themselves. Unfortunately they went to Portland, where they were intended for the wild districts of Davy county. The bright-eyed gazelles were consigned "to order" in this city.

THEATRE.—Mr. and Mrs. Conway did not come yesterday, and the bill last night was changed to a comedy one, in which the pieces were well played. To-night, however, they will appear in Macbeth, and we bespeak for them a full house—knowing that all who go will be more than repaid.

POOR INDIAN.—A poor woman, with two little children, was found by the day police yesterday high up in Green street, in a confounding building, in a freezing and starving condition. They were taken to the city prison, and will probably be sent to the almshouse this morning.

FIRES IN NEW ALBANY.—The N. A. Ledger says that the fire of the German Presbyterian Church, in Upper Fourth street, in that city, caught fire yesterday morning. This is the second time the roof of this church has caught fire within a few weeks.

THE JEFFERSONVILLE FERRY-BOATS.—were seriously embarrassed yesterday morning by the adverse winds. Passengers by the early train over the Jeffersonville Railroad missed the connection.

CATHERINE MURPHY.—was charged by her husband, in Police Court yesterday, with habitual drunkenness. In default of bail for her future subdity, she was sent to the workhouse.

FRANCIS McLEAN.—of Vigo county, and Representative Dublin, from Marion, members of the Indiana Legislature, were in the city yesterday.

A HOUSE CASUARIN.—During the gale of wind Sunday afternoon, a large oak tree was blown down on the seventh street plank-road, falling near the residence of Mr. W. M. Walker, a tannage, literally crushing the building and the furniture which it contained to fragments. As if by Providential dispensation, Mr. Walker's family were attending a funeral at the time, also, they too, must have been included in the general ruin. To Mr. Walker the loss is a severe one, as the building and furniture were his sole estate.

VALUABLE DOCUMENTS.—We are indebted to Col. Humphrey Marshall for valuable documents.

REV. G. F. ADAMS.—has assumed the editorial control of the Baltimore Baptist Union.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Rogers, an old citizen of Louisville, while driving a team of mules attached to a baggage-wagon out Second street, near Green, yesterday, was thrown from the wagon, which was overturned, and had his leg broken near the ankle by the weight of the baggage. He was taken into the residence of a kind friend, in the neighborhood, and a physician was sent for, who dressed the wound, when he was conveyed to his own residence, in Clay street, between Jefferson and Market.

CHESTNUT STREET HOSPITAL.—From the report of W. A. Hundley, M. D., Superintendent of the City Hospital, we learn that 94 patients have been admitted to the Hospital during the month of February. There remained over the 1st of February, 84—making a total of 133. Of this number, 94 were discharged, and 4 dead—leaving in the Hospital at present, 80 patients.

SHIPMENTS OF LIVE STOCK.—Among the shipments of live stock from the country yesterday, over the L. & F. Railroad, were four young puppies and two young fawns. The hounds were intended for the wild districts of Davy county. The bright-eyed gazelles were consigned "to order" in this city.

THEATRE.—Mr. and Mrs. Conway did not come yesterday, and the bill last night was changed to a comedy one, in which the pieces were well played. To-night, however, they will appear in Macbeth, and we bespeak for them a full house—knowing that all who go will be more than repaid.

DISSEMINATING CHEMIST.—A correspondent on the steamer Madison informs us that boat a passenger on board recently at Tug's Woodard, on the Mississippi, who possessed a thorough knowledge of chemistry. So intense was his admiration for the science that he thought and talked of nothing else. From his excessive knowledge of science he proposed to analyze a number of Mississippi water, and in all the different tributaries of the stream; from a knowledge of the peculiar properties of each. Scientific man that, and altogether, worthy the attention of the Board of Visitors of the U. S. Marine Hospital at this point.
